RESIDENCE HALLS ASSOCIATION MEETING MINUTES

The meeting of the Residence Halls Association was called to order on Wednesday, September 22, 1982, at 9:20 p.m. in the Living-Learning Center of Thompson Hall by President Reed Downs. Reed welcomed the newly elected Presidents, Vice-Presidents, and Fire Marshalls. The fire marshalls were then dismissed to meet with Mr. James Morton, Director, Division of Student Housing.

Old Business

Parents Weekend - The receptions held in each of the residence halls were successful. Suggestions for next year were to have the receptions earlier; after the football game. If they were held then an announcement could be made during the football game that receptions were immediately following the game.

RHA Dance - There was an excellent turnout for the street dance. Andy Kniceley suggested the RHA write a letter to the cheerleaders, thanking them for their time and for their excellent performance during the pep rally.

New Business

Residence Hall Week - It was suggested to move the week from October 19-22 to November 9-12 due to the conflict of mid-terms and Homecoming. Joan Patrick moved that the week be changed; Ginny Creasman seconded the motion. Motion passed. It was also suggested that a theme for the week be developed or find a new name for the week. A committee was developed to work on this. The committee is Ginny Creasman, Joan Patrick, James Tucker and Ben Iden. The committee will meet on October 4th at 8:30 p.m.

RHA-Program Council Undertaker's Ball - This year's Undertaker's Ball will be held on Tuesday, October 26th, from 8 p.m. - midnight in the ADUC Crager Room. The theme will be based on an old western town. Volunteers to work with Program Council on this are Wendy Crass, Tony Tyree, and Sharon Dellinger.

Miss MSU Pageant - Reed asked if there was any one on RHA that would like to represent the RHA. No volunteers. It was decided to let Reed find somebody to represent RHA. Deadline is October 1st.

Chi Omega Campus Follies - Andy Kniceley suggested that Billy Goldsmith represent us in the follies but withdrew his name when the suggestion was made that he represent Downing Hall. If anybody has any suggestions contact Reed.

Tri Sigma Big Man on Campus - will be held November 10-12 at ADUC. The winner will be announced at the November 13th football game. Nominations were opened. Marc Rosen was selected to represent the RHA.

Secretary Joan Patrick read the minutes from the last meeting, then called the role and a quorum was present. Members absent:

Robin Whittaker
Andy Kniceley
Deborah Feola
Robin Farley

Stephen Stewart

Old Business

Reed asked if Nunn Hall, Waterfield, Alumni, and Regents had registered with Clyde James. All answered 'yes.'

RHA-PC Undertaker's Ball-It was reported that the committee for planning the Undertaker's Ball met at 6:00 p.m. Oct. 4 to decide on decorations and refreshments. They decided to decorate on Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 2:00 p.m. They'll be decorating for two hours. Madonna mentioned that anyone who wants to help decorate is welcome.

Residence Hall Week- James Tucker reported that the committee to develop a theme for the Residence Hall Week of Nov. 9-12 met on Oct. 4 at 8:30 p.m. The committee's suggestions for the theme were: "Eagle Livin'," "Home Sweet Hall Week", "Dorm Days," and "Life as an Eagle." Jamie suggested that the members of RHA vote for the theme that they preferred. "Home Sweet Hall" won. Beth Withrow requested that the name stay "Residence Hall Week." Members voted to leave the week as "Residence Hall Week" and agreed with Reed's suggestion that each hall have its own theme. Madonna wants hall presidents to decide their theme at their next hall council meeting, then report to her at the next RHA meeting.

MSU Pageant- Reed suggested two candidates--Paulla McKinney and Toni Hart. Cheryl Gauder informed him that both girls now have sponsors. Susette reminded us that Todd Holdren has a list of girls that need sponsors so we can check with him.

Chi Omega Follies- Reed said that he knew of a band to represent us--"Drake Mallord and the Mangled Baby Ducks"--Randy Crouch suggested Kathy Bailey, a pianist. Joan Patrick suggested Barb Langston, a singer. It was decided that Randy would check with the pianist, if she declined, then Joan would ask the singer. The deadline for the Follies' entry is Thurs. Oct. 7.

New Business

Homecoming- Susette announced that Program Council will have a Residence Hall Homecoming Decoration Contest that will be judged by professors on Friday, Oct. 29, around 3-4:00 p.m. The winner will be announced at the ballgame and the prize will be a pizza party or cash.

NACA (National Association for Campus Activity)- The NACA convention will be in Louisville Oct.31-Nov.3. It has workshops on how to plan campus activities. PC and SA go to the national convention and regional convention. Reed will be going to the regional convention this year. Madonna said if there's anyone wanting to go, get in touch with her. It depends on spaces available. People that attend will get class excuses. You will need money for meals, although some meals will be provided.

Next meeting will be Monday, Oct. 18 at 9:30 p.m. at Alumni Tower. After Dave Wilcox schedules the meeting through his hall director, members will be notified as to where we will meet in the residence hall.

Meeting adjourned at 9:50 p.m.

RESIDENCE HALLS ASSOCIATION MEETING MINUTES

The meeting of the Residence Hall Association was called to order on Monday, Oct. 18, at 9:40 p.m., in Alumni Tower by President Reed Downs. Secretary Joan Patrick read the minutes from the last meeting, then called the role. Members absent:

Cheryl Gauder, Andy Kniceley, Ed Strosnider, Debbie Feola, Robin Farley, Alison Shore, Jennifer Noland, Marcus Eads, Stephen Stewart, Martin Lock, Kent Hill.

Old Business

Miss M.S.U. Pageant- Madonna announced that Michelle Gessendorf is our candidate for the pageant.

Chi Omega Follies- Randy Crouch informed us that Mike Dameron, a singer, will be our representative.

New Business

Mr. Jim Morton, head of the Housing Advisory Committee, presented the proposal that the Housing Advisory Committee and RHA merge as one for a trial period. Rather than consisting of only Hall Vice-Presidents, the Committee would consist of Hall Presidents and Vice-Presidents. Mr. Morton feels that this would strengthen the Housing Advisory Committee.

Ginny Creasman motioned that we bring together the RHA and the Housing Advisory Committee. Melissa Huber seconded the motion. The members voted and the motion passed.

David Holton, SA Vice-President, asked for some opinions about the SA proposal that non-students be allowed to participate in Open House. David said that the proposal would have restrictions such as the non-student must pre-register to participate in Open House or get permission cards. No one under the age of 18 can participate in Open House if they are a non-student. David also thought that the SA and RHA should join forces and emphasized that Hall Presidents should attend the SA meetings as well as their committee meetings. He said attendance is getting low at the committee meetings and it is mandatory that members attend.

Announcements

Waterfield is having a mixer with all freshmen dorms on Friday, Oct. 29. Old movies will be shown and refreshments served. It is a Halloween costume party.

The members of RHA will be notified as to when and where the next meeting will be.

The meeting adjourned at 10:50 p.m.

Wednesday, Nov. 10- PC Movie- 7:00 and 9:15

Thursday, Nov. 11 - PC Dance in Grill

Friday, Nov. 12 - RHA Dance

Hall activities should be scheduled on Tuesday or Wednesday, which ever is convenient for each individual hall.

Madonna suggested that we have half of the residence halls visited on Monday and the other half on Tuesday. Dave Wilcox made the motion that the women's halls have Faculty-Staff Open House Monday and men's halls have it on Tuesday. Jamie Tucker added to the motion that the time for both days should be 3:00-5:00 p.m. Jennifer Noland seconded the motion. Motion passed.

Madonna said that the office will offer publicity for RHA sponsored activities, but halls should publicize the hall council sponsored activities.

For faculty-staff open house, each hall should send out invitations. Suggestions for open house: model room, refreshments, etc.

A committee to plan the talent show was set up consisting of Jennifer Noland, Jamie Tucker, Reed Downs, and Joan Patrick. This committee will choose the judges, em cee, prizes, etc.

A committee for the dance consisting of Laura Strunk, Dave Wilcox, Ginny Creasman, and Ben Iden was set up to decide on if there'll be a theme, decorations, etc. Reed offered to be the disc jockey and use his own equipment.

There is a possibility that we could have a special in the cafeteria or bookstore during Residence Hall Week. Reed will check on it.

Announcements

PC needs help decorating for the Undertaker's Ball. They'll be decorating from 2:00 until the job is done. Help for cleaning up after the dance is also needed.

Committees need to stay after this meeting to pick a time to meet with Madonna.

RE: RNA Meeting

The next RNA meeting will be held on Monday, November 22, 1982 at 9:15 pm in Wilson Hall LHC.

Thanks to all of you for your efforts in making Residence Hall Week 1983 a success.

At this meeting we will want to evaluate and make recommendations for future residence hall weeks.

Discuss a plan for students to be able to sign up for the same rooms in the spring semester for the next fall.

Discuss whether or not male residents would appreciate and use a sewing machine if it were made available in the residence hall area.

Please be there!

RESIDENCE HALL ASSOCIATION MEETING MINUTES

The meeting of the Residence Hall Association was called to order on Monday, Nov. 22, at 9:25 p.m., in Wilson Hall by President Reed Downs. Secretary Joan Patrick read the minutes of the last meeting and called the role. Members absent:

Laura Strunk
Dave Wilcox
Melissa Huber
Robin Farley
Marcus Eads
Martin Lock

Andy Kniceley
Debbie Feola
Ben Iden
Jennifer Noland
Steven Stewart
Keith Herndon

Old Business

Residence Hall Week- Reed asked for recommendations for future Residence Hall Weeks. Members thought that we should stop having Faculty-Staff Open House due to poor faculty participation and that we shouldn't schedule Residence Hall Week during pre-registration. It was suggested that we have a campus carnival where each department would set up a booth. The money made from the carnival could be used as a scholarship. Another suggestion was a Faculty Dinner, where the faculty would serve the students.

New Business

Open House for Parents during Homecoming- Homecoming at M.S.U. has been planned mainly for the alumni in the past. Jim suggested that it also be a kind of Parents Weekend since about half of the visitors housed during Homecoming weekend were parents, friends, and family of students. The members thought it was a good idea and added that early publicity would be needed to let students know that they can ask their parents down for Homecoming even if the parents aren't alumni.

System to sign up for Fall Semester Housing- It was suggested that rather than having room drawing at ADUC, we have the Housing Staff spend one day at each residence hall so students from that residence hall could sign up for the same room if they wanted it. A committee was set up consisting of Ginny Creasman, Beth Withrow, Cheryl Gauder, Carolyn Pelham, Kent Hill, Ben Iden, and Ed Strosnider to meet with the Housing Staff on Tues. Nov. 30, at 3:00 p.m. in Thompson Hall. The committee will bring up their recommendations at a future RHA meeting.

Sewing Machine for Men's Halls- Randy Crouch felt that some of the men would probably use the sewing machine if they had it. Madonna suggested that one be centrally located in Alumni Tower.

Basketball Promotions- Reed suggested that the RHA sponsor some kind of activity involving the basketball team. The members agreed that it was a good idea. One suggestion was a dance and pep rally for the team. Another suggestion was a free throw contest between residents from each hall. Susette suggested that we co-sponsor the Program Council "Pop the Colonel" dance that they are planning for the night before the Eastern game.

Announcements

The Vice-Presidents need to meet with Jim after this meeting to discuss maintenance problems in their halls.

Program Council is sponsoring a semi-formal Holiday Dance in Button Auditorium on Dec. 3, from 9:00 p.m. - 1:00 a.m. Xanthus will be the band.

The meeting adjourned at 10:10 p.m.
